

STOP! WOMEN,

AND CONSIDER THE
ALL-IMPORTANT
FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with woman's diseases covers a great many years. You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a man—besides a man does not understand—simply because he is a man.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private ills to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. — Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Following we publish two letters from a woman who accepted this invitation. Note the result.

First letter.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—For eight years I have suffered something terrible every month with my periods. The pains are excruciating and I can hardly stand them. My doctor says I have ovarian and womb trouble, and I must go through an operation if I want to get well. I do not want to submit to it if I can possibly help it. Please tell me what to do. I hope you can relieve me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and E. Capitol Sts., Benning P.O., Washington, D.C. Second letter.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—After following carefully your advice, and taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am very anxious to send you my testimonial, that others may know their value and what you have done for me."

"As you know, I wrote you that my doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I then wrote you, telling you my ailments. I followed your advice and am entirely well. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I owe my life to you and to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wish every suffering woman would read this testimonial and realize the value of writing to you and your remedy."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and E. Capitol Streets, Benning P.O., Washington, D.C.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women whose testimony is so unquestionable you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

Judith of the Plains—By—
MARIE MANNING,
Author of "Lord Allingham, Bankrupt"

Copyright, 1905, by Harper & Brothers

Perhaps with this hunting wound and the long reign of Peter as a divinity. Judith was tired, not in her vigorous young body, because that was strong and beautiful as the hill wind, but tired in heart and mind and life. Her destiny had not been beautiful or happy before he invaded it, but it had been calm, and now serenity seemed the worst gift of the gods. It was not that she loved him less, but that she had so long reflected upon him that her imagination was numb. Her thoughts, arid, unfruitful as the desert, turned from him to the problems that beset her, and from them back to him again in dull, subconscious yearning.

She could no longer project an anguished consciousness to those scenes wherein he walked and talked with Kitty. Her Indian fatalism had intervened. "Life was life," to be lived or left, and yet she felt herself a poor creature, one who had lived long on illusion, who had bent her neck to the yoke of arid unrealities. The pale haired woman who kept him with her miserliness of self, who intruded no sadder tragedy of loving, was well worth a trip across the foothills to see, and yet, Judith reflected, it was the portion of her mother's daughter to make of loving the whole business of life, even if she rebelled and fought against it as an accursed destiny.

Her light feet scarcely touched the ground as she sped swiftly through all the network of the hills, and more than once her woman's heart asked the question, "And, prithee, Judith, if from henceforth you are only to hold fellowship with the stars and have no part in the ways of men, why do you walk a day's journey to catch a glimpse of a pale haired woman?"

She knew the probable course of the wolf hunt. She had been on scores of them, galloped with Peter after the fleeing gray thing that swept along the ground like the nucleus of a whirling dust devil. At least she was sure of the place of the noonday—a limpid stream that ran close to many young pine trees. Here was a pause in the rugged ascent, a level space of open green, thick with buffalo grass. Many times had she been here with Peter, sometimes with many other people on the chase, sometimes—and these occasions were enshrined in her memory, each with its own particular halo—with Peter alone, and they had fished for trout and cooked their supper on the grassy levels. It was in Judith's planning to arrive before the hunting party, to hide among the thickets of scrub pine that grew along the steep cliffs and overlooked the grassy level, to take her fill of looking at the pale haired girl and the hunters at their merry-making, and, when he had seen, to steal back across the trail to the Daxes.

They would not penetrate the thickets where she meant to hide, and should they she was prepared for that contingency too. She had brought with her a bright colored shawl that she would throw over her head, and with the start of them she could outrun them all, even Peter. Had she not outdanced him easily many times in fun? Through the tangle of tree trunks that grew not far from the thicket they would think she was but a poor Shoshone squaw lying in wait for the broken meat of the revelers.

By crossing and recrossing the tiny creeks that trickled slow and obstructed through the gaunt levels of plain and foothill she had come by a direct route to the fringes of the pine country. And here she found a world dim, green and mysterious. It was well high in the afternoon that the land of sagebrush and silence could within walking distance of desolation show such wealth of young timber, such shade and beauty. Her noiseless footfalls scarce started a sage hen that, realizing too late her presence, froze to the dead stump—a ruffled gray expression with glittering bead eyes that stared at her furtively, the one live thing in the tense body.

The sun wanted an hour of noon when Judith rested by the stream, bathed her face and hands, flushed from the long walk, ate the bread and meat, then lay on the bed of pine needles, brown and soft from the weathering of many suns and snows. She had been all day in the company she loved best—the earth, the sky, the sun and wind—and in her heart at last was a deep tranquillity. Thus she could face life and ask nothing but to watch the cloud fleeces as they are spun and heaped high in the long days of summer, in soberer moods to watch the thoughts of the Great Mystery as he reveals them in the shifting cloud shapes; to penetrate farther and farther into the councils of the great forces. Thus did she dream the moments away till the sun was high in the blue and threw long, yellow splashes of light on her still body, on the soft pine needles beneath the boughs.

But there was no time for further day dreams if she intended to forestall the hunters at the place of noonday. She followed a game trail that lay along the stream, ascending through the dense growths till she reached the top of the jutting rocks. Her hair was loosened, her skirt away, and the pine needles stood out from it as from a cushion. Much of the way she gained by creeping beneath the low branches on her hands and knees. No white woman would be likely to follow her, reasoned the daughter of the plains. It would be a little too hard on her appearance. And here, by lying flat and hanging over the jutting knob of rock, with a pine branch in her hand, she could see this mysterious woman and Peter and the hunters.

A THOROUGH CLEANING

Mr. Hearst's Contest Promises to Let in the Light on Many a Dark and Devious Way.District Attorney Jerome Has Trained
His Powerful Batteries Upon Tammany Hall.

New York, Nov. 10.—Attorney General Mayer stated today that he had received information of the recovery from the North river of certain ballot-boxes used in the election of Tuesday last. He said the matter was under investigation.

New York, Nov. 10.—The contest over the mayoralty election, inaugurated by William Randolph Hearst, the Municipal Ownership candidate, has developed some interesting and spectacular features. For twelve hours the boxes containing nearly 600,000 ballots cast in last Tuesday's election choked the streets in the vicinity of the headquarters of the board of elections in Sixth avenue, between Forty-first and Forty-second streets. The ballot-boxes had been gathered during the night by the police and conveyed in patrol wagons to the election board's headquarters.

There the officials refused to receive the ballot-boxes, and the police, acting under a court order signed by Justice Gaynor, compelling the police authorities to turn the ballots over to the election board, had nothing to do but remain outside and await the pleasure of the election officials.

Powerful Machinery in Motion.

Apprised of the situation, the attorneys for Mr. Hearst appeared before Justice Dickey of the state supreme court and secured from him an order compelling John R. Voorhis, president of the board of elections, to accept the ballots. The order was served promptly and the ballots were then received for by the election board. Under strong guards the patrol wagons containing the boxes were driven to various warehouses in this city and Brooklyn, where the ballots were stored subject to the orders of the election board.

State Attorney General Julius Mayer had a conference in the afternoon with District Attorney Jerome, after which Superintendent of Elections

WILLIAM TRAVERS JEROME.

Morgan appeared before Messrs. Mayer and Jerome, with six of his deputies and placed evidence before the prosecuting officials.

Another feature of the contest is the announcement by the Citizens' Union that it will join the forces investigating the charges of fraud and wrongdoing at the Tuesday election, its prime object being to secure a new election law in the state of New York.

Attorney General Mayer said: "District Attorney Jerome has placed at my disposal the machinery of his office and will co-operate with me in every way, as I will with him, in the prosecution of offenses against the elective franchise. Assistant District Attorneys Perkins and Sanford are to devote themselves to this work in conjunction with Deputy Attorney General Mason and assistants."

The attorney general received a large bundle of subpoenas from the district attorney and immediately put several election deputies at work serving them. Charges that several ballot-boxes had been stolen before the returns were reported and that others were found unsealed, have been made. The investigation of the election promises to be the most thorough ever made in New York city.

Mayor McClellan has engaged counsel, among them being Alton B. Parker, ex-judge of the court of appeals and Democratic candidate for president last year to represent him during the mayoralty contest.

A statement was issued from Mr. Hearst's headquarters saying that an examination of the alleged defective ballots which were thrown out on election day shows more than 8,000 which he declares should have been counted for him. It is asserted that these ballots were marked with a cross beneath the municipal ownership emblem and in the circle over Mr. Jerome's name. Mr. Hearst says these ballots should be counted for him pending a judicial decision as to their validity. He asserts that if these were accredited to him he would be elected without a recount of the entire vote.

APPEAL FOR PEACE

Prince Obolensky Addresses a Stirring
Note to His Clergy.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 10.—The orthodox clergy under the direction of the new procurator general, Prince Obolensky, have issued a stirring appeal to the provincial priests to aid in the restoration of peace in the country. The document, which is written in the old Slavonic style, declares that the priests are unworthy ministers of the church if they stand idle while Christians are murdering each other and their "brothers the Jews."

It adds: "We are servants of Him who taught us to love our enemies. Let us elevate the cross for the blood which has flowed over it, and in the hour of freedom teach the eternal truth before which every party must bow down."

The following appointments to the new ministry are officially announced: Ivan Sipoff, who was Count Witte's assistant in the ministry of finance and his associate at Portsmouth, to be finance minister.

M. Timiriazoff, assistant minister of finance, as minister of commerce.

M. Nemechaieff, president of the Southeastern railroad, as minister of communications.

M. Filossoff, controller of the empire.

NICE, PEACEFUL TALK

No War Signs Seen at London Lord
Mayor's Banquet.

London, Nov. 10.—"A century ago Pitt, standing where I now stand, prophesied war; today I prophesy peace." This was the text on which Premier Balfour based his speech concerning the relations of Great Britain with foreign countries at the lord mayor's banquet in the guild hall last night, an occasion when custom makes it almost imperative for either the premier or the foreign secretary to discuss the foreign and domestic policies of the government. Mr. Balfour and Whitelaw Reid, the American ambassador, who replied to the toast, "Their excellencies, the foreign ministers," proposed by the lord mayor, vied with each other in pleasant words for the credit of their respective countries as leaders among the advocates of the arbitration of quarrels throughout the civilized world. In fact the whole tenor of the speeches was optimistic so far as the relations between all the great powers were concerned. The banquet was conducted with all the quaint ceremonial peculiar to the occasion.

THAT HOUSE AT ALBANY

Mysterious Abode in New York State
Capital Comes in For a Further Bit of Investigation.Present Attention of Mr. Hugges' Inquisition Given to Affairs of the Metropolitan Company.

New York, Nov. 10.—The house in Albany, N. Y., which testimony before the insurance investigating committee has heretofore shown was for a number of years maintained by funds of the Mutual Life Insurance company, was again given some attention by Charles E. Hugges, counsel for the committee when Michael H. Mullaney, the caretaker of the house, was called as a witness.

Mr. Mullaney's testimony was in great part a corroboration of previous testimony that A. C. Fields, while employed as stationery agent of the Mutual, also looks after legislative matters, and paid the rent for the Albany house. A number of vouchers signed by Mullaney were identified by the witness, who acknowledged receiving money for them. Some purported to be for legal services, some for sundries and some for traveling expenses. Witness said he was not a lawyer and could not explain why vouchers were made out to that item. J. M. Beck, counsel for the Mutual, however, took occasion to remind the counsel that all vouchers for the maintenance of this house, it had been testified, were charged to legal expenses. Mr. Hugges said that did not explain why some were for traveling expenses and some for sundries.

Mullaney could not tell what the sundries were unless they were supplies. He had taken trips to New York to see Mr. Fields at the latter's suggestion. He did not know how many times he had been to New York. He sometimes bought tickets for Mr. Fields. Nineteen vouchers were identified by Mullaney, for all of which he admitted he received the money, which aggregated $5,739. These were paid between March 7, 1900, and July 12, 1905. Mullaney said his salary was $25 a month. He had never carried any money to Albany from New York for Mr. Fields and had never paid out any money for Mr. Fields.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance company figured in the greater part of the day's proceedings. John R. Hegeman, president of the company, was the first witness and the expenses of the company were further gone into. It was brought out that Mr. Hegeman's salary is the same as that of John A. McCall, president of the New York Life, $100,000. Previous to 1905, however, Mr. Hegeman received $90,000. The salary of Vice President Haley Fiske is $75,000; George H. Gaston, the second vice president, receives $37,500, and Frank O. Ayers, third vice president, receives $16,250.

St. Louis, Nov. 10.—The New York Life Insurance company, through its attorneys, F. N. The application was favorably passed upon by Judge Adams, who issued a restraining order directing William D. Vandiver, state superintendent of insurance, to appear before the federal court in Jefferson City Nov. 20 to show cause why he should not be prevented from enforcing his order excluding the New York Life Insurance company from doing business in Missouri and ordering that pending the hearing Nov. 20 the superintendent's order be not enforced.

Mutinous Sailors at Cronstadt Start on a Rampage.

Cronstadt, Nov. 10.—The heavens reflected the glare of smouldering fires as the Associated Press correspondent approached Cronstadt at 8 o'clock last evening. Upon landing, however, hurried inquiry revealed the fact that the troops and the loyal sailors apparently had the upper hand. Fighting had ceased in the streets and the town was quiet, but fears were expressed that there might be further trouble later. Today patrols are engaged in hunting down and capturing the mutineers.

The outbreak started Wednesday afternoon, when the sailors of the Seventh fort equipage revolted and, it is rumored, killed some of their officers. They marched out of the barracks and immediately plundered four spirit shops. Crazy with liquor, they returned and seized their arms, and then went on the rampage, firing promiscuously upon the troops and the loyal sailors. Later they were joined by many of their comrades and fighting continued from midnight until morning, when the terror-stricken inhabitants began to flee. The lowest estimates place the number of dead at fifty.

Several regiments with eight machine guns from St. Petersburg and Oranienbaum have been landed.

Many wounded persons are in hospitals. The sailors say their chief grievances are poor food and clothing and an insufficient amount of liberty from barracks.

Roughs joined in the pillage, but the workmen did not participate in it. Many of the workmen and the civilian population have either fled or are trying to flee the city, and the docks are piled high with baggage and household effects. Though a majority of the mutineers have surrendered, several hundred are still holding out in the eastern section of the town. They have thrown up barricades, but they are surrounded and machine guns are posted at all streets leading to their stronghold. It is expected that the remainder of the mutineers will submit today.

To Honor Sir George's Memory.

New York, Nov. 10.—The international committee of the Y. M. C. His body will be buried at St. Paul's cathedral, London, next Tuesday.

In spite of doubts and fears you will take the first step to health when you take the first dose of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It never fails to help. In ninety-eight cases out of one hundred it never fails to cure. Never mind about the symptoms. "I am thankful to say that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cured me of consumption," writes Mrs. Mattie L. Denton, of Morristown, N. C. "My health had been bad for several months before I began the use of your medicine. I had symptoms of consumption. Had night-sweats, a bad cough, loss of appetite and a great loss of flesh. There were other symptoms of disease that disappeared by the use of the medicine. By the time I used one bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I began to regain my appetite and after using two and a half bottles my cough was cured. I could eat heartily and all symptoms of consumption had disappeared. Took seven bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one of the 'Favorite Prescription.' Am very thankful I received so much benefit. I believe I would have been dead if I had waited and not taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

Tonic

THOS. J. BROOKS

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 24, 1905.

Gentlemen:

Allow me to say a word endorsing the remarkable merits of your Rexall "93" Hair Tonic.

My attention was called to this remedy by one of your clerks, who guaranteed beyond question it would stop my hair falling out, and also put my scalp in healthy condition for new hair.

I hand you photograph before starting to use it, which shows me to be nearly bald. After using two bottles I saw decided improvement, so continued its use. I have used seven 50-cent bottles, and have a heavier suit of hair than I ever had in my life.

I also enclose photograph taken a few weeks ago, showing the wonderful results in a short time.

I take great pleasure in making this statement to you, gentlemen, endorsing your great Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, and will answer promptly all inquiries regarding it.

I am at present special agent of the Western and Southern Insurance Company, 21-22 Courier-Journal Office Building, this city.

Very respectfully,

Thos. J. Brooks

This is a remarkable case—an exception to the rule. We do not promise that "93" will grow hair on every bald head—but we do guarantee, because we know, that it will stop falling hair, cure dandruff, and give satisfaction to anyone needing a hair dressing. If it doesn't, bring back the bottle, and we'll refund the 50 cents you pay for it.

For a while last winter the railroads carried grain from Omaha to Baltimore for 1 1/2 cents a hundredweight. At the same time it was 15 to 18 cts. a hundred from different parts of Iowa. In other words Iowa had to pay more to transport grain to the Atlantic than Nebraska still further away from the Atlantic. When the rate on cotton goods was $2.24 from Boston to Denver, it was but $1 a hundred to San Francisco. Dairy-men in New Hampshire are compelled to pay more for shipping butter to New York City than the butter-makers of Iowa. Lake City, Minn., is 70 miles nearer Chicago than St. Paul, yet the rate from Chicago to Lake City is the same as that from Chicago to St. Paul. Hutchinson, Minn., pays 13 cents a hundred for 55 miles, while Minneapolis pays but 20 cts for 420 miles. These are but a few among thousands of instances in which discrimination of the same kind is made. Everybody concerned with this question in one way or another may as well begin to look these conditions squarely in the face, and the sooner he does it the better.

The cover is illustrated with a picture of the 18 hour train from Chicago to New York. The piece is not only an artistic advertisement to the Pennsylvania Company, but is worthy of its author.

An English advertising expert tells of a prominent manufacturer whose principal output was an article which sold for a shilling, and which, being extensively advertised, was also extensively imitated. In order to meet the competition of substitutes the manufacturer set apart a portion of his output and sold it at sixpence under another name. The shilling articles knocked out the competition, but though it was identical with the shilling article except in the name, it never sold as well. The shilling goods were advertised, the sixpenny goods were not. The unadvertised product could not compete with the advertised product at half the price.—Exchange.

Every Ounce You Eat.

Every ounce of food you eat that fails to digest does a pound of harm. It turns the entire meal into poison. This not only deprives the blood of the necessary tissue building material, but it poisons the blood. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant. It digests the food regardless of the condition of the stomach. It allows that organ to rest and get strong again. Relieves Belching; Heart Burn; Sour Stomach; Indigestion; Palpitation of the Heart, etc. A. J. Pellens, W. F. Peters.

CITY COUNCIL.

Business Transacted at Meeting Last Night.

Mayor Graessle and all the councilmen were in their places, at council meeting last night. After the minutes were approved the following business was transacted:

The grade committee to which was referred the crossing at the outlet of the new alley opened from the end of Meyers street to Broadway reported in favor of leaving the grade of the sidewalk as it is for the safety of pedestrians and that the street commissioner look after the drainage and put in the necessary tiling. The report was approved.

The light committee to which was referred the matter of placing an arc light at Eighth and Ewing and another on North Broadway reported in favor of referring the question back to council. Huber moved that the light asked for be placed at Eighth and Ewing. Cordes offered an amendment that the matter be referred back to the light committee with instructions to look over all the wards and ascertain if other lights were needed. This motion carried.

The street commissioners report was read and approved.

Mills, chairman of the city building committee, reported the progress made on the city building since last council meeting. The report of the chairman and the record of the committee's action shows that the city's interests are being very carefully guarded.

A resolution granting to the board of county commissioners the permission to grade and gravel Central Avenue, the public highway forming a part of the west corporation line of the city, according to a petition now pending before the county commissioners, was read and approved.

Robertson moved that R. R. Short be notified to cinder sidewalks along his property in First ward. Carried. Huber moved that Mrs. Harlow be granted a rebate of tax on $640 erroneously assessed as reported by the county treasurer.

The street commissioner was directed to look after street work in nearly every ward in the city.

Clerk was instructed to notify the Trust Company to cinder the sidewalk along the Galbraith property on Meyer street.

On motion of Miller, Clerk was directed to notify the B. & O. S-W, to clear the sidewalk at their freight depot.

An ordinance appropriating $2000 to make payment on city building was introduced, advanced and adopted under suspension of the rules. This money is to be disbursed under the direction of the building committee.

Council adjourned at 8:30.

MARRIED

ECKLER-HANLON

Mr. Robert Eckler and Miss Anna Hanlon, both former residents of Seymour, were married at her home at Vincennes today. Both are excellent young people who have many warm friends in this city who extend congratulations to them. Miss Hanlon has but recently moved to Vincennes with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Denings, having Hanlon lived on east Third street in this city. Mr. Eckler is employed with the Postal Telegraph Company at St. Louis, where they will make their future home. They left Vincennes for St. Louis today. Their friends here are pleased to hear of their marriage and wish them a very happy life together.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price 75 cents per bottle. OLD AGE BROUGHT NO INFIRMITIES

To "The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table."

Oliver Wendell Holmes, after eighty years of life had rolled over his head, declared that he was "eighty years young." "So may every man and woman in Seymour" said Mr. Peter of the W. F. Peter Drug Co. "If they will take proper care of themselves, keep built up and their bodily tissues from wasting."

We wish we could persuade every person in this vicinity who "feels old" whether they are so in years or not, to take Vinol. It is by far the greatest tissue builder and invigorator we know of for old people. Vinol is not a patent medicine, but simply contains the body-building, strength creating properties of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, and we guarantee that it will repair worn tissues, check the natural decline and replace weakness with strength.

There are hundreds of old people in this vicinity who need just such a strength-maker and tissue-builder as Vinol. Their blood is thin, sluggish and watery, but we guarantee that Vinol will enrich and quicken the blood and build up and strengthen every organ in the body. Vinol contains no whiskey or strong stimulants which have a bad after effect and weaken and break down, and we wish every old person in this vicinity would try Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if they are not satisfied." Baptist Conference.

The missionary conference at the First Baptist church closed Thursday evening with a stirring address by Dr. E. W. Lounsbury, of Chicago, on "World Wide Missions." Dr. Lounsbury is the district secretary for Foreign Missions and is among the best speakers in the denomination.

The Thursday afternoon session consisted of a strong home mission address and a presentation of the needs of our own land by Rev. S. C. Fulmer, of Indianapolis, the district secretary for home missions. His address was followed by an earnest sermon by Rev. A. A. Smith, a plea to Christian people to seek more of the power of the Holy Spirit for their week.

The entire conference was on a high plane and will doubtless result in great good to the church.

There is much speculation as to who will compose the cabinet of Charles A. Bookwalter during his four years' administration beginning the first of the year. It seems likely there will be a scramble for the appointment as city attorney, which pays $4,000 and is the best position within the gift of the mayor. Bookwalter says he has not made a single promise, but it is likely that after he takes a few days' rest he will begin the selection of the men who will serve with him. It is understood that Linton A. Cox, one of his neighbors, who was very active in his campaign, expects to be appointed city attorney. State Senator Martin Hugg is also thought to stand a good show for the place. It is said that Robert Metzger, chairman of the city committee, may be appointed police superintendent. He was formerly sheriff and is regarded as a good man for superintendent.

TO FAMOUS FLOWER SHOW.

Excursions to Indianapolis over Pennsylvania Lines.

Widespread interest is manifested in this year's Indiana Floral Festival and Chrysanthemum Show in Indianapolis. There will be afternoon and evening concerts by the Indianapolis Military Band. The exhibits are expected to surpass all previous displays. They include unusually fine orchids, said to be the richest representatives of those wonderful flowers. The display of American Beauties alone will be worth going miles to see. A striking new feature will be enormous French Chrysanthemums backed on mossed tables. Thousands of electric lights will illuminate the Exposition. Special low-fare excursion tickets to Indianapolis for this event will be sold over Pennsylvania Lines from stations in Indiana November 15th and 16th. Further information may be obtained from Pennsylvania Lines ticket agents. For programs of the Festival address Secretary Irwin Bertermann, 241 Massachusetts Avenue, Indianapolis.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

CATARRH

FIRST A COLD THEN CATARRH THEN CONSUMPTION

A cold in the head is a common ailment, but it rarely ever stops there. It often grows stubborn and protracted, the mucous membranes, or inner lining of the body, become inflamed and secrete a filthy, unhealthy matter which is absorbed by the blood and soon produces that disgusting disease, Catarrh. Then follow the unpleasant symptoms of "hawking and spitting," ringing noises in the ears, headache, poor appetite, mucus dropping back into the throat, and a feeling of general debility. Every day the blood becomes more heavily loaded with these poisonous secretions, and if the trouble is allowed to run on, the lungs become diseased from the constant passage of poisoned blood through them, and then Catarrh terminates in the most dreaded and fatal of all diseases, Consumption. The only way to get rid of Catarrh permanently is to cleanse the blood, and S. S. S. is the ideal remedy for this purpose. It soon clears the system of all impurities, purges the blood of all Catarrhal matter and poisons, and effectually checks the progress of this dangerous and far-reaching disease. S. S. S. keeps the blood in perfect order so that Catarrh cannot remain; and as this pure, healthy blood goes to every nook and corner of the body, the entire system is strengthened and invigorated, and the symptoms all pass away. Book with information about Catarrh and medical advice free.

Burned to Death in Jail.
Newark, N. J., Nov. 10.—Michael McDermott, who was serving a sentence for drunkenness, burned himself to death last night in a padded cell of the county jail here, the smoke from the fire and the odor of burning flesh creating a panic among the hundred prisoners in the jail, which required the best efforts of the keepers to subdue. Men and women made frantic efforts to tear away the iron bars of their cell doors.

Fierce Railroad Dispute.
Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 10.—Five hundred men in the employ of the Canadian Pacific railroad and Vancouver, Victoria and Eastern railway have been engaged in fighting for supremacy and right of way over a disputed section of land. Picks and shovels were used as weapons and there were several pistol shots, but provincial police disarmed the combatants before anyone was killed. Nine arrests have been made.

One hundred and eighty political prisoners have been released here under the amnesty decree.

Denver, Nov. 10.—The special grand jury which has been investigating the recent failures of the Denver Savings bank and the Western State bank, has made its report and has been discharged. It recommends that an effective state banking law along the lines of the national bank law, be enacted by the next legislature. Indictments were returned against Charles A. Hill, E. E. Hull, H. L. DOING THEIR DUTY.
Scores of Seymour Readers A-Learning The Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick. Backache and many kidney ills follow. Urinary trouble, diabetes, Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. Seymour people endorse our claim. James Pollard, of Cincinnati, Ave., railroad employe, says: "For many years off and on I suffered from lameness across the loins and sharp twinges of pain in my back every time I made a sudden movement I could lift nothing of any weight and there was lack of ambition to do anything. At times the pains felt as though some one was plunging an awl into me. Any little cold or exposure brought on an attack and caused me acute suffering. I had heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them at C. W. Milhous' drug store. They proved just the remedy I needed and soon relieved me of the whole trouble. My kidneys have been regular and normal ever since and I can sleep all night without being disturbed."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Heart Weakness.
Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has made many hearts well after they have been pronounced hopeless. It has completely cured thousands, and will almost invariably cure or benefit every case of heart disease.
Short breath, pain around heart, palpitation, fluttering, dizzy, fainting and smothering spells should not be neglected. Take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and see how quick you will be relieved.
It cannot make a new heart, but will restore a sick one by strengthening the heart nerves and muscles, relieving the unnatural strain, and restoring its vitality.
"I had a very bad case of heart trouble. For six months I could not work. Last July I was plowing corn and feeling bad all day; in the afternoon in plowing one row I had to lay down, or fall down, three times. My heart throbbed as though it would burst through, and I had difficulty in getting my breath. I purchased a bottle of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and before I had used half of it I could lay down and sleep all night. Previously I had to get up from five to ten times a night. I have taken several bottles, and my heart is as regular as clock work. I feel like a new man, and can work considerable for an old man, 84½ years old."
H. D. McGILL, Frost, Ohio.
Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

Crown Point, Ind., Nov. 10.—Within a few minutes after being sentenced to prison from two to fourteen years for manslaughter, James Mulcahey was married to Miss Gertrude Agnes Kennedy in his cell in the jail here. Mulcahey killed a man in his saloon about two weeks ago, when the latter attempted to raise a disturbance in the place. The verdict of the jury was read to the prisoner at the jail, and then came the marriage ceremony. Miss Kennedy, who has been attending the trial daily, called for a priest and the two followed the sheriff to the jail.

OPENS FIRE ON MOTHER-IN-LAW
Defendant in Divorce Suit at Peru Charged With Attempted Murder.
Peru, Ind., Nov. 10.—"I've got to kill you," were the words of Edward F. Bennett as he drew a revolver and opened fire on his mother-in-law, Mrs. Caroline Green, on the threshold of her home. Bennett, it is said, then seized her by the hair and dragged her upstairs, where he began beating her. When a neighbor appeared Bennett opened fire on him and drove him away. He was captured by the police after a fierce struggle.
Bennett was recently made a defendant in a suit for divorce, which alleged desertion. It is said that he blamed his mother-in-law for his wife's action.

Law Must Be Obeyed.
Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 10.—The saloons of this city were closed at 11 o'clock last night for the first time in many years. Early in the evening the board of public safety issued an order to the effect that the Nicholson law must be obeyed to the letter. Joseph Elder, president of the board, stated that the mayor had nothing to do with the order, as it had been contemplated for some time. He also stated that the law shall be obeyed if the police force had to be doubled.

Change of Venue for Gipe.
New Castle, Ind., Nov. 10.—Haley Gipe, who will have a second trial for the Starbuck murder, filed affidavit for change of venue and Judge Morris selected the Rush circuit court. Sheriff Christopher and Prosecutor Jackson have new evidence and new witnesses to introduce at the second trial.

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 10.—James Fender, aged thirty years, a booker at the Johnson stone quarry, was instantly killed at the quarry. Woman Fatally Burned.
Danville, Ind., Nov. 10.—As the result of trying to revive a smoldering fire with coal oil Mrs. Lewis Marsh, aged forty-three, is hovering between life and death at her home in this city. Following an explosion Mrs. Marsh's clothes became ignited and the woman was soon enveloped in a mass of flames. She probably will die.

Murder Theory Advanced.
Guilford, Ind., Nov. 10.—The body of Mrs. George Schilde, aged eighty, was found in an old cistern near her home after a search of several days. She was dressed in her nightclothes. It is the theory of the authorities that the aged woman was murdered. The coroner is investigating.

Elkhart, Ind., Nov. 10.—A man of genteel appearance, giving his name as M. C. Temple of Detroit, Mich., swallowed a quantity of chloroform and died soon after. It is thought that the name is a fictitious one. His linen was marked M. C. Thompson.

Elwood, Ind., Nov. 10.—Dode Frazier, an eight-year-old boy, was struck by a passenger train on the Lawe Erie & Western railroad here and instantly killed. He was on his way to school when the accident occurred.
